

Calotis cuneifolia

Asteraceae

Hardy

Purple Burr-daisy

Win Spr Sum Aut
 0.3 ACT, NSW, Vic, Tas, SA,
 Qld, WA
 →0.5

Low spreading daisy with wedge shaped leaves, hairy branches, and mauve flowers, followed by small burr fruits. For most soils. Prune old stems in late winter. Rockery plant.

Calotis cuneifolia JL*Calotis cuneifolia* JLCalotis lappulacea

Asteraceae

Hardy

Yellow Burr-daisy

Win Spr Sum Aut
 0.5 ACT, NSW, Vic, SA, Qld,
 WA, NT
 0.3 ←0.5

Perennial herb with lobed, hairy foliage and small yellow flowers. Seed is a sticky small burr. Adapts to most soils. Prune old stems in early spring.

Calotis lappulacea JLCalytrix tetragona* (prostrate)

Myrtaceae

Hardy

Common Fringe-myrtle

Win Spr Sum Aut
 0.1 ACT, NSW, Vic, Tas, SA,
 Qld, WA
 →0.5

Plant with fine foliage and white or pink star flowers with long lasting colourful calyces.

Calytrix tetragona (prostrate) MRChrysocephalum apiculatum

Asteraceae

Hardy

Common Everlasting
Yellow Buttons

Win Spr Sum Aut
 0.4 ACT, NSW, Vic, Tas, SA,
 Qld, WA, NT
 0.2
 0.5 ←→2

Perennial herb with variable, green or grey leaves and clusters of small golden flowers. Good in massed plantings.

Forms: green suckering, silver, tall green, tall silver
Syn. Helichrysum apiculatum

Chrysocephalum apiculatum ACChrysocephalum semipapposum* - see Herbaceous plantsCorrea alba* (low)

Rutaceae

Hardy

White Correa

Win Spr Sum Aut
 NSW, Vic, Tas, SA
 1 ←→2

Low handsome plant with round greyish leaves and white or pink starry flowers. For dry or moist soils. Tolerates salt spray.

Correa alba (low) MRCorrea decumbens

Rutaceae

Hardy

Spreading Correa

Win Spr Sum Aut
 SA
 →3

Prostrate shrub with narrow dark green leaves, greyish below, and narrow red bells with green tips held upright. Moist or dry soils. Good for banks.

Form: upright (to 1m high)

Correa decumbens HBCorrea 'Dusky Bells'

Rutaceae

Hardy

Win Spr Sum Aut
 Cultivar
 →2

Dense shrub with oval leaves and dusky pink bells. For heavy and clay soils in moist or dry conditions. Prune regularly.