

Wednesday Walk – Farrer Ridge – 19 October 2016

A small group of nine leisurely traversed a garden of flowers in the Rossii forest: Nodding Blue Lilies, stacks of Creamy Candles, Daphne Heath covered in butterflies, Yam Daisies, Rice flowers and Common Beard Heath. Time for a long morning tea in perfect weather and a change of scenery. Numerous Spider Orchids scattered randomly among Creamy Candles and Twining Fringe Lilies and a solitary Donkey Orchid made walking very difficult. Masumi was voted spotter of the day finding several things I have overlooked on my regular walks. A small rosette with short stem and two buds (will check out what it is). Lots of Sun Orchids in bud and I know the open fields are full of Swan Greenhoods, all of us looking carefully for them until Masumi who had fallen behind taking photos pointed them out immediately as well as two spider orchids on one stem. On to more Spider Orchids and Bitter Peas flowering. Lunch on the rocks took us to a change of vegetation: Early Nancy, Chamomile Burr-Daisy, lots of Golden Lilies and Billy buttons.
